W. A. CHESTERMAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Well-Known Contractor Passes Away at Home on Monument Avenue.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON Was Contractor for Enlargement of State Capitol, and Had Part in Other Extensive Enterprises Throughout City.

Wirt A. Chesterman, sixty-three years old, a prominent general contractor and one of the best-known business men of this city, died yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock from a complication of diseases at his home, 2229 Monument Avenue, after an illness covering more than a year.

Chesterman had been in failing health for some time, having been originally ill last summer, he had recovered sufficiently to care for a part of his business. He suffered a relapse about two weeks ago, however, and his condition grew steadily worse.

The funeral will be conducted from the home this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. S. H. Gray, D. D., pastor of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, assisted by Rev. John J. Bradford, pastor of Park Place Methodist Church. The interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

Chesterman, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chesterman, of this city, had been married three times. His first wife was Miss Virginia Harman, of Hampton, a daughter of the late Colonel A. Harman, by whom there survives one daughter, Miss Virginia Chesterman. His second wife was Miss Charlie Le Sueur, daughter of the late Dr. Le Sueur, of Kingham County, of the union no children survive. His third wife, who survives him, was Miss Elizabeth Crump, daughter of the late Charles M. Crump, formerly auditor of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad. Of this marriage there are two children, Misses Elizabeth and Margaret Chesterman. He was a brother of the late W. D. Chesterman, who was connected for many years with the old Richmond City, and of Bruce Chesterman, R. D. Chesterman, Forrest Chesterman and Mrs. C. M. Murray, all of whom have died in the past fifteen years. He was an uncle of Edwin J. Chesterman, secretary of the State Board of Education.

WAS ONCE ASSOCIATED WITH GENERAL FITZGEEH LEE He received his education here, and spent the greater part of his life in upholding Richmond. After completing his education he went to Glasgow, Rockbridge County, and was associated with General Fitzghee Lee in various business enterprises in that city. He returned to Richmond, however, about two years later, and made his home in this city from that time.

Mr. Chesterman was probably one of the best-known contractors and builders in Richmond, and is largely responsible for many of the handsome structures of the city. He was the contractor for the new State Library, the additions to the State Capitol Building, the Jefferson Market, the new Broad Street, and the old Young Men's Christian Association Building, at the corner of Sixth and Main streets, which was removed several years ago for the new Chamber of Commerce Building. Mr. Chesterman was, at one time, president of the old Richmond Builders' Exchange.

Among the large apartment houses for which he was the general contractor, and several of which he at one time owned, were the Hanover, the Raleigh, the Gresham Court, the Chesterfield and the Westchester.

The pallbearers will be: Arthur James M. Gill, James Gwatkin, Clinton L. Williams, A. Gray, Anthony Adams, George Wickham, Walter Briggs, Edward Trigg.

Honorary Judge D. C. Richardson, Oliver E. Sande, Eugene S. Lewis, Henry Baskerville, E. Y. Higginbotham, Dr. Charles A. Blanton, John T. Wilson and T. L. Burdick.

Judgments Against Railway. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RICHMOND, Va., February 8.—Judge Henry G. Connor, of the Federal court, today signed judgments against the Seaboard Air Line and the Norfolk and Western Railway Companies for failure to equip their cars with safety appliances. Liability was admitted in all the cases. The judgments against the Seaboard aggregated $500 and those against the Norfolk and Western, $600.

Fire Visits Warsaw. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WARSAW, Va., February 8.—The store of J. Brumbers, with a stock valued at $6,000, insured for $2,000 was burned last night. The storehouse was also burned. The old callahan dwelling was damaged to the extent of $1,200, with no insurance. The coach and blacksmith shop, property of Jones & Child, was also destroyed. The storehouse of H. L. Wertz and the dwelling of A. A. Brockton, which were in the neighborhood, escaped narrowly.

Renominate Wilson Without Opposition

Members of Subcommittee of Democratic National Committee Can See It No Other Way.

ST. LOUIS, February 8.—That President Wilson would be renominated without opposition, was the consensus of opinion of members of the subcommittee of the Democratic National Committee, who met here today to arrange details for the Democratic National Convention.

The committee met shortly before noon in executive session, and this afternoon inspected the Coliseum, considering desirable alterations.

Robert Ewing, publisher of the New Orleans States, was appointed chairman of the press committee for the convention, and James Preston, sergeant-at-arms of the press gallery of the United States Senate, was appointed vice-chairman.

Chairman McCombs said to newspaper men today that President Wilson would be renominated, and that no opposition to him had developed in any quarter.

The committee adopted a resolution to invite former national committee men to attend the convention as honor guests.

A number of subcommittees which met today will continue their meetings here to-morrow.

Another meeting of the committee on arrangements will be held in New York city in about six weeks, Mr. McCombs said. Early in May this committee will open permanent headquarters in St. Louis with J. Bruce Kremer, of Montana, in charge.

MEMORIAL TO BOOTH. Salvation Army Will Build Training School for Workers, at Estimated Cost of $500,000.

NEW YORK, February 8.—Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army, has announced that a movement to build a training school for Salvation Army workers, as a memorial to the late General William Booth, will begin in March, at an estimated cost of $500,000.

The proposed school is intended to train men and women for work in the industrial, prison and religious departments of the Salvation Army, and to maintain an institution where human deities may receive physical and spiritual benefits.

CLEMENCEAU ON HOUSE. His Mission "Seems Characteristic of President Wilson's Spirit of Hesitation."

PARIS, February 8.—Georges Clemenceau, former French Premier, commenting in his newspaper, L'Homme Enchaîné, on Colonel House's mission, which he says "seems to me characteristic of President Wilson's spirit of hesitation," writes:

"Europe has suddenly seen a dumb missionary disembark on its shores for a tour of inspection among the combatants. He has passed everywhere, appearing and disappearing by turns like the Flying Dutchman in the mists of the horizon. He has said nothing, his whole mission evidently being to observe. His task, I suppose, is to report faithfully to the President, and the conclusions he draws from personal observation as to the balance of force between the belligerents."

Another meeting of the committee on arrangements will be held in New York city in about six weeks, Mr. McCombs said. Early in May this committee will open permanent headquarters in St. Louis with J. Bruce Kremer, of Montana, in charge.
